

Introducing Abbey HR Services

Employing over 50 lawyers and consultants, we provide a wealth of knowledge and expertise to over 250,000 businesses of all sizes in the UK and we pride ourselves on the range of specialist consultancy and employment law skills we provide.

Our Directors and Consultants have many years of experience of the consulting market, and we have established Abbey HR Services to provide outsourced HR and Employment Law Services and consultancy support, with customer service at the forefront of everything we do.

We believe that this commitment to providing the highest levels of customer support, delivered in a practical, common sense and commercial way, together with a transparent pricing structure, sets us apart from our competitors.

Our services are tailored to meet the needs of your business, regardless of the size of your organisation. Every client has a dedicated consultant, who will not only ensure that your business is fully compliant with employment legislation, but will also provide you with practical on-going support.

So if you employ people, we can help you and ensure that all your employment law needs are met, so you can concentrate on running your business.

At the same time, if you employ 'in house' HR professionals, we can provide support to your existing resource.

Of course, no matter how good your policies and procedures are, you may still become a victim of a vexatious Employment Tribunal claim from a disgruntled employee.

As a consequence, all of our services can be supported by a Legal Expenses Insurance Policy, covering the costs and awards of Employment Tribunals, thus providing you with total peace of mind that your business is fully protected.

Each year our litigation team, of fully qualified solicitors and barristers fight hundreds of Employment Tribunal claims on behalf of our clients and maintain an enviable record of success.

We are successful and popular with our clients because of our customer focussed approach. To us this means:-

- A commitment to working closely, and in partnership with you, and becoming part of your team
- Providing commercial solutions to your HR and Employment Law issues
- Ensuring that you are compliant with Employment Law, and making sure problems are resolved before they can damage your business
- Doing what we say we will do, when we say we do it, and being open and honest in all our dealings with you
